Minneapolis, MN | 763-381-2390 | jamiebetsybraith@gmail.com

Portfolio: <https://jamiebraith.com/>

Summary: Results-oriented Product Designer with 15+ years experience across digital agency, B2B SaaS, internal tools, and education. Leads complex redesigns, defines processes, and manages teams to deliver scalable design systems, personas, and intuitive UX, boosting organizational efficiency.

Accomplishments

- Managed and mentored design team for over 2 years, defining design processes, fostering team growth, and ensuring high-quality project delivery.
- Spearheaded the development of comprehensive user personas and a custom internal tool design system, empowering internal teams with deeper understanding of fraud agents, customers, and incident types, resulting in enhanced consistency and productivity.
- Led extensive user research programs, conducting 8-10 remote moderated studies (50-80 sessions) to generate insights, build foundational user archetypes, and develop strategic product visions.
- Orchestrated the comprehensive redesign of Sophia.org, an affordable online education marketing site, by creating customer journeys, wireframes, high-fidelity designs, and a scalable design system, significantly enhancing the learner's conversion experience.
